The Seventeenth Annual Meeting will be held in New York City, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 13, 14 and 15, 1913

THE Association is always glad to send samples of its literature to prospective members. Membership application blanks will be furnished by the Secretary on request.

Members should promptly notify the Secretary of any change in address or business connection, or of any errors in this directory.

National Fire Protection Association.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE 1.—This organization shall be known as the National Fire Protection Association.

ARTICLE 2.—The objects of this Association shall be to promote the science and improve the methods of fire protection and prevention; to obtain and circulate information on these subjects and to secure the co-operation of its members in establishing proper safeguards against loss of life and property by fire.

ARTICLE 3.—Membership shall consist of (a) Active, (b) Associate, (c) Honorary. It is understood that through membership none is pledged to any course of action.

a. Active Members.—National institutes, societies and associations interested in the protection of life and property against loss by fire, state associations whose principal object is the reduction of fire waste, insurance boards and insurance associations having primary jurisdiction, shall be eligible for active membership. Annual dues shall be $25.

b. Associate Members.—National, state and municipal departments and bureaus, libraries, boards of trade, chambers of commerce and similar business associations, insurance boards and insurance associations not eligible to active membership, individuals, firms and corporations shall be eligible for associate membership. Annual dues shall be $5.

Associate members shall be entitled to all the privileges of active members except the right to vote.

c. Honorary Members.—Honorary life membership may be conferred upon persons who for more than fifteen years have rendered exceptional service in the work of fire protection and fire prevention. A favorable report by the Executive Committee and a majority vote of the Association at any regularly called meeting shall be necessary to elect. This membership carries with it all the privileges of associate members without dues.

ARTICLE 4.—The officers shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary-Treasurer, and an Executive Committee of fifteen. They shall be elected at the annual meeting and shall hold office until their successors are elected. At each annual meeting a President, a Vice President and a Secretary-Treasurer shall be elected for one year, and five members of the Executive Committee for three years, and the Association shall designate each year the member of the Executive Committee who shall be chairman thereof.

a. The President, the Vice President and the Secretary shall be ex officio members of the Executive Committee and the Secretary shall act as Secretary thereof.

b. The President shall be ex officio a member of all committees except the nominating committee, and may appoint as his proxy any other officer of the Association.

c. Vacancies in office shall be filled by the Executive Committee until the next annual meeting, when the Association shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term in the same manner in which officers are elected.

ARTICLE 5.—The duties of all officers shall be such as usually pertain to their offices, or may be assigned by the Association.

ARTICLE 6.—The Executive Committee shall have general charge of the affairs of the Association, direct the expenditures, and audit the accounts of the Treasurer. Seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE 7.—Applications for membership shall be submitted to and acted upon by the Executive Committee, a two-thirds vote of the committee being necessary for admission.

ARTICLE 8.—Appointments to special committees shall be on recommendation of the President, Vice President and Secretary, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee at a regularly called meeting.

ARTICLE 9.—In response to invitation the President may appoint a delegate or delegates to represent the Association at meetings of organizations represented in the Active Membership.

ARTICLE 10.—The annual meeting shall be held during the month of May, due notice of which shall be given to each member by the Secretary at least twenty days in advance. Place of meeting, if not selected each year at a regular meeting of the Association, to be determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 11.—Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee, or shall be called by written application of twenty active members to the Executive Committee. Notice of such meetings shall be sent to all members at least twenty days in advance, stating the business to be transacted, and no other shall be entertained.

ARTICLE 12.—Each active member represented shall be entitled to one vote, and in order to transact business there shall be twenty-five members present.

ARTICLE 13.—These Articles of Association may be amended at any regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present, due notice of the proposed amendment having been given each active member at least twenty days previous.
